Terms & Conditions:

Pine Lake Retreat is a Christian retreat center, which is owned and operated by the Seventh-day Adventist Church. In order for all of our guests to feel comfortable at our facility, we ask that you observe a few simple guidelines while visiting.

- From sundown Friday until sundown on Saturday, we make every effort to maintain a quiet atmosphere which is conducive to worship because this is the Sabbath. The activities listed above with an asterisk (*) beside them are not available during the Sabbath hours.
- We request that modest bathing suits be worn while on camp property.
- There is to be no profanity used on the grounds.
- No beverages containing alcohol will be allowed on the premises. If anyone in your family is observed with any form of alcohol, you will be asked to leave and there will be no refund.
- The Seventh-day Adventist church does not believe in smoking, because we feel it is harmful to your health. We do care about those who smoke and understand that it is a very addictive habit. If you are interested in help to stop smoking, please contact us at our office and we will be glad to put you in contact with someone who can help. In the mean time, we ask that there be no smoking in any of the buildings or at public activities.

We ask that you provide adequate supervision of your family at all times and that the rules and guidelines be strictly followed by all members of your family.

Do Not Assume Confirmation. Because of the demand for the camp facilities, your reservation is not confirmed until you receive a signed copy of this application along with the receipt for your deposit.

I have read the above guidelines and agree to abide by them while at Pine Lake Retreat Center. It is also understood that there are charges involved when using the facilities at Pine Lake Retreat Center and it is agreed that these charges will be paid.
